Our Beginning

The Benalla Sustainable Future Group was established in 2010 by local residents who were concerned about the issue of sustainability and the lack of action on climate change both locally and nationally.

Our Purpose

Benalla Sustainable Future Group promotes the development of a sustainable vision for Benalla to:

- Reduce the region's contribution to greenhouse gas emissions,
- Reduce reliance on non-renewable sources of energy,
- Promote environmental awareness and responsibility,
- Protect, restore and rehabilitate the natural environment.

Benalla Sustainable Future Group encourages anyone interested in climate change issues and the development of a more sustainable lifestyle to join our group and become involved in our activities.

What We Do

Benalla Sustainable Future Group works to achieve its aims through:

- Conducting regular meetings,
- Establishing action groups to achieve some of our objectives,
- Acting as an advocate for environmental and sustainability issues,
- Networking with other like-minded organisations,
- Producing a quarterly newsletter.

Meetings

The Benalla Sustainable Future Group holds general meetings on the fourth Thursday of every second month in March, May, July, September and November. The group meets at 7:30pm in the meeting room at the Uniting Church, Carrier Street, Benalla.

Action Groups

Bulk Food Co-operative: The bulk food co-operative enables members to buy mainly Australian produced non-perishable foods without packaging.

Renewable Energy Action Group: The main focus of this group is the exploration of renewable energy options for Benalla. www.reb.org.au.

Sustainable Building Action Group: This action group considers issues relating to sustainable housing design and retrofitting for energy efficiency.

Plastic Bag Action Group: This group is working with local businesses and Council to have Benalla become a plastic bag free town.

Benalla Local Food Network. Encouraging local food growers, retailers, organisations and community members to come together to supply the town with healthy food.
